

Rabbi Batya Steinlauf

Rabbi Batya is the JCRC Director of DC Government and Community Relations and Director of Social Justice Initiatives and Inter-group Relations. Batya is a Conservative Rabbi, ordained at the Jewish Theological Seminary in 1998. She is the current Chair of the InterFaith Conference of Metropolitan Washington as well as the Co-Chair for Montgomery County Faith Community Advisory Council. She has a BA in Political Science from Rutgers University, a degree in Master of Hebrew Letters from The University of Judaism, as well as a Master's degree and Rabbinic Ordination from The Jewish Theological Seminary of America. Batya has worked in Jewish education at all levels and worked at a number of social service agencies. Batya lives in Washington, DC with her three children.